REWARD MOTION FOR ANTWAN EMIL COLE

On Friday, February 8, 2008 at approximately 11:20 p.m., Antwan Emil Cole was shot multiple times while waiting near a bus stop in the Athens area of Los Angeles at the corner of 135th and Main Streets. He was transported to a local hospital, but was pronounced dead a short time later. Antwan had just gotten off work where he was a security guard for an oil refinery across the street from the bus stop.

Antwan lived with his grandmother, Evelean Cole, and attended Los Angeles Trade Tech College. He is survived by his father, Andre Cole, his mother, Anona Stuart and five brothers and three sisters.

There are no leads or suspects at this time.

THEREFORE, I MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS offer a reward in the amount of $10,000 in return for information leading to the arrest and conviction of
